

Dear Sir,

Our divergence in opinion on the subject spoken about in your letter to me, received this day, is so great that I think any further discussion time lost.
Having had the longer portion of my life
in working for & practising independence of speech & action I can well see the occasions to put aside the habit now & feel a right to be respected in the conscience we of the same.

Feeling also confident that at some other time you may see cause to regret having said so injurious and uncalled for a letter to a friend of twenty years standing - I remain

Very Yrs

Wm L. Maudslay

March 31st 60

68. 152

W. 152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

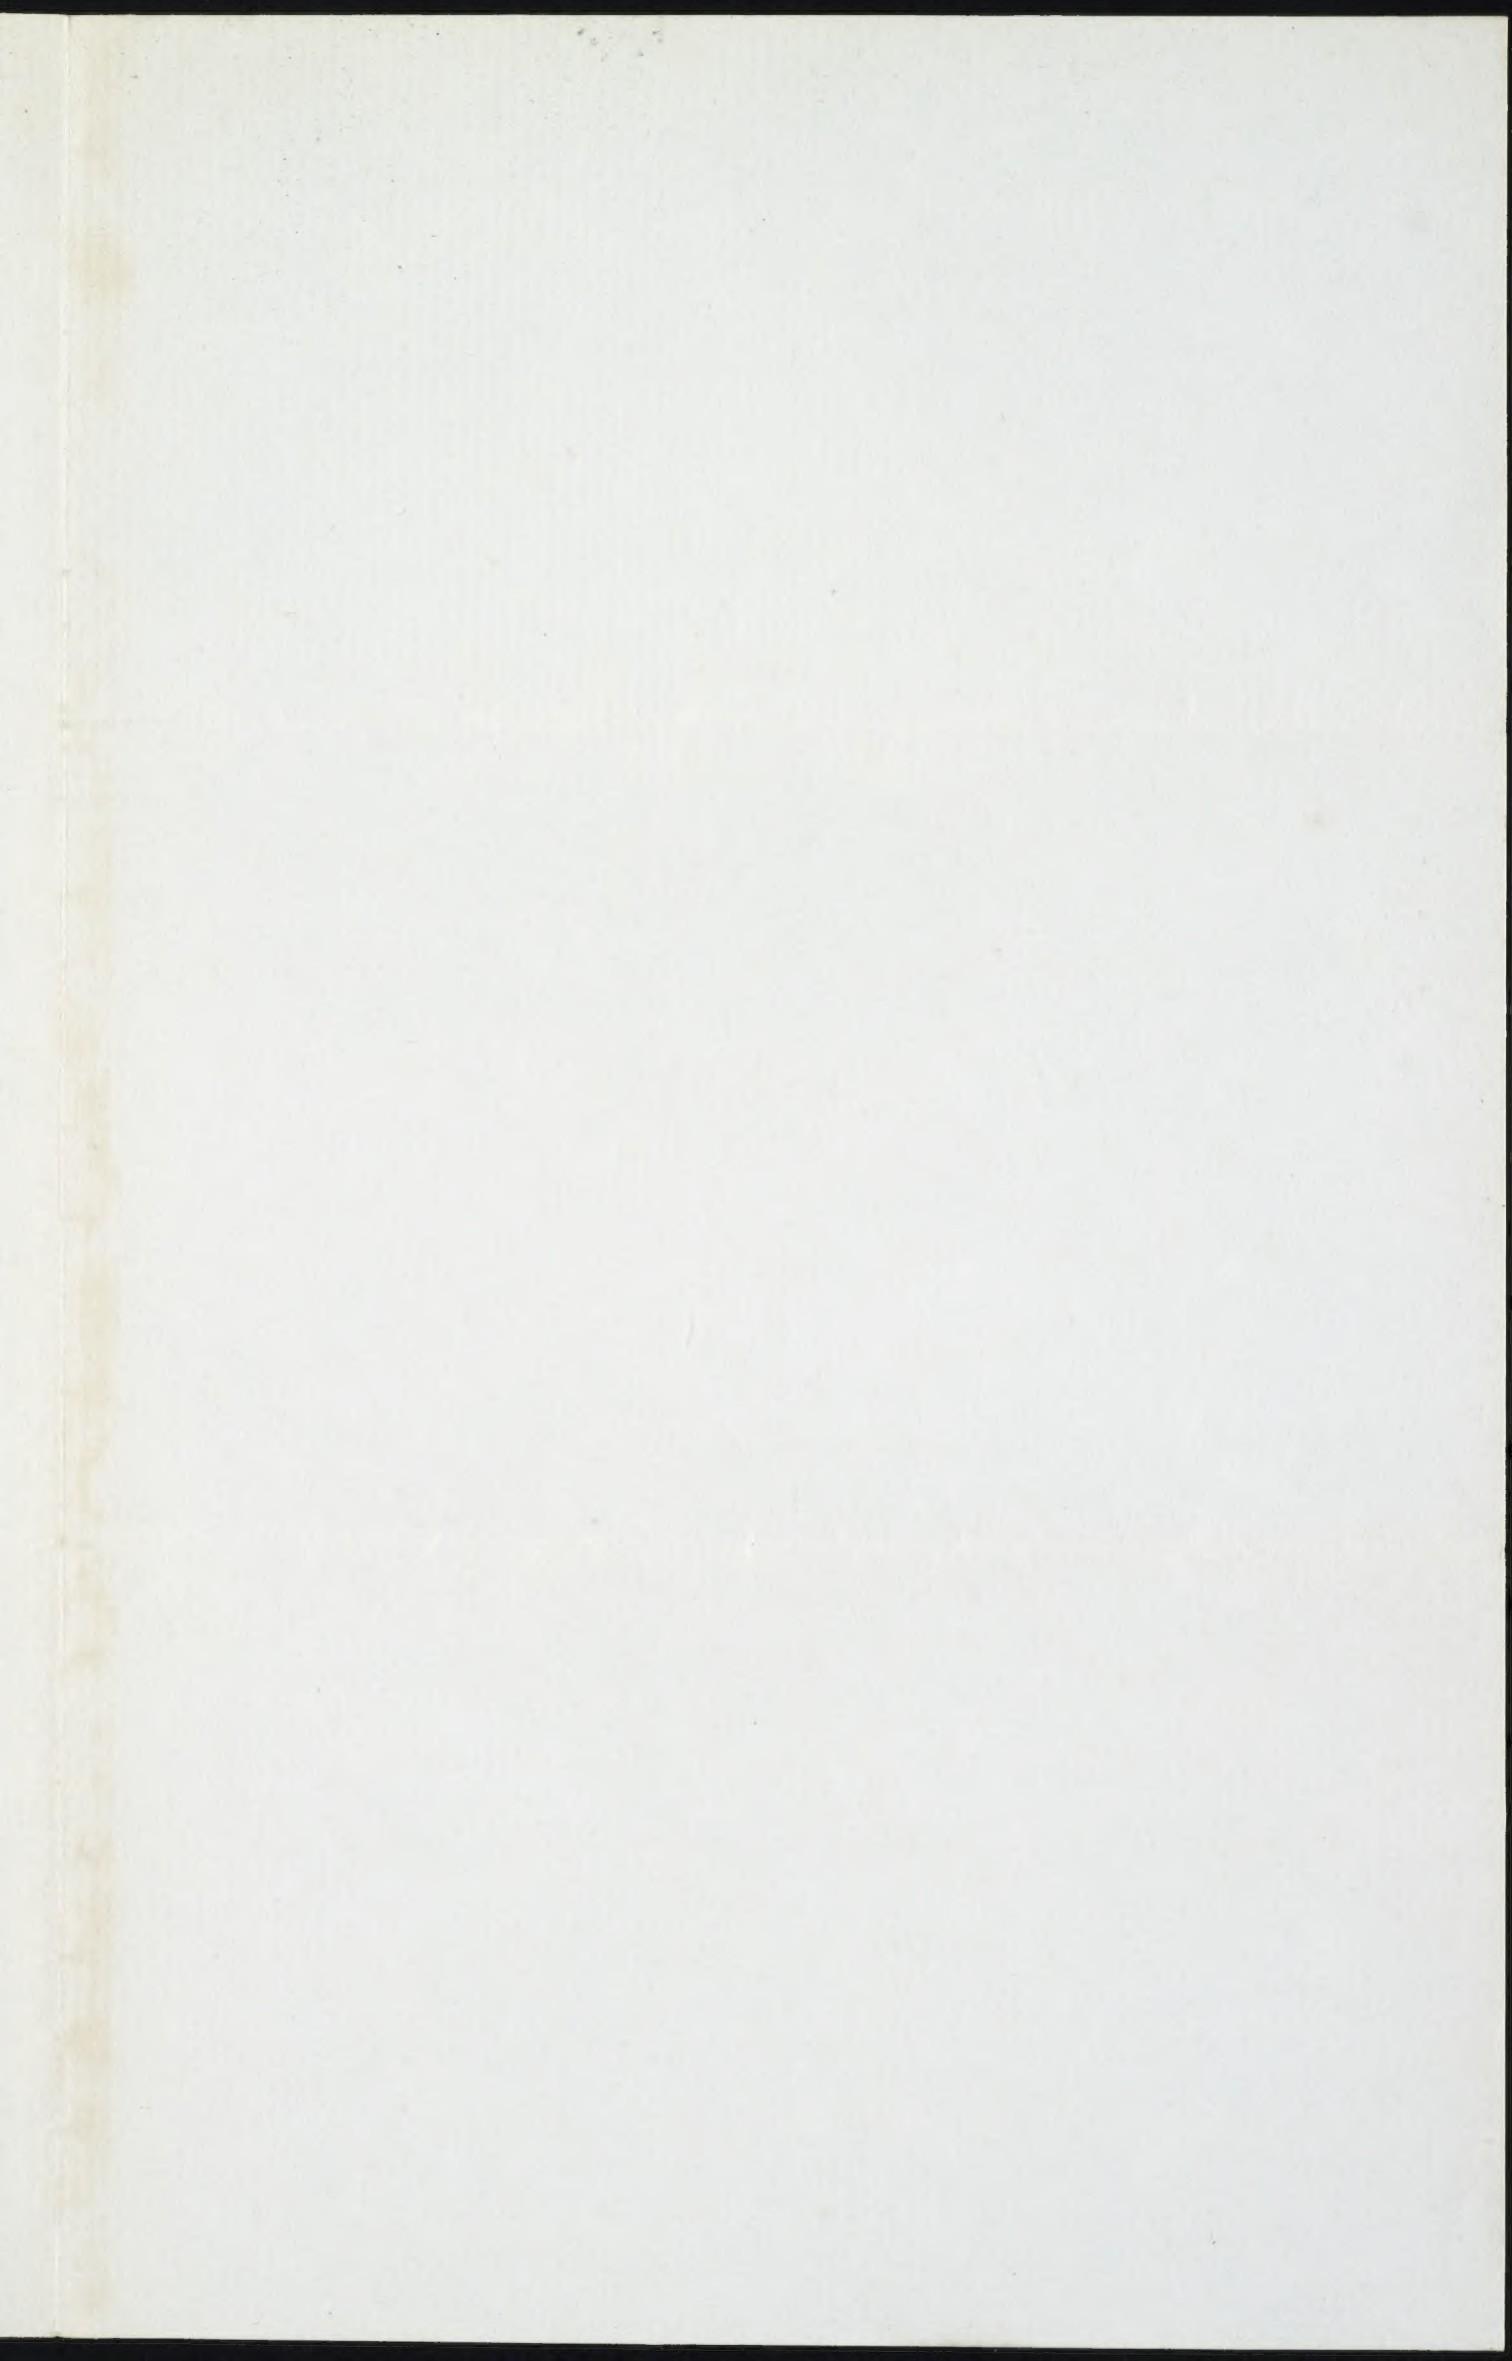

152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

152. 152. 152.

MSA. v. 7, p. 784